Translucence View...The Making Off (part 1)

Submitted by Arnd on Mon, 2006-01-23 14:47. art 4
inspiration | Translucence View Project

It took some 6 months email correspondance to get clarification on all detals, prepare all that was needed. Just after NYE I received the good news: the municipality of Madrid approved my project to use the muppies for a site-specific installation.

So I had VERY little time to prepare everything. Fortunately the camera I wanted to rent was still available at that time.

Also I contacted various people to help work out logistics for this project.

My old friend and colleage Kristal Montana was available to assist. However, she already planned a stay in Athens, where she worked on a project last summer. AMS-MAD or ATH-MAD didn't seemed a big difference, so from Athens and Amsterdam we made a move to Madrid.

We arrived late at night, had a chat and a bite in a restaurant, where Kristal noticed a waiter saying: 'Tontos extranjeros, tarden mucho..'

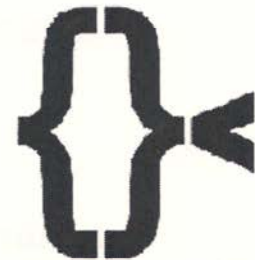

(Those stupid foreigners take sooo long). We decided to remain diplomatic, just Kristal repeated this line a little louder than the waiter did. Great how you make new friends wherever you are. :~)

Before my departure from Rotterdam I received a list of all the directions for the muppies.

At dawn next day we set out for the city to search for the first location to photograph.

'Translucence View' proposal for Madrid Abierto

Submitted by Arnd on Mon, 2006-01-23 14:35. art 4
inspiration | Translucence View Project

MADRID ABIERTO is an international artistic programme which falls into the category usually referred to as public art, even though this is a somewhat controversial term and which has been rapidly evolving over the past few years. Last may I send a proposal of the project 'Translucence View' to the Madrid Abierto committee that got selected for this show. The project Translucid view consist of photographic interventions in a series of so called 'muppies'(Mobiliario Urbano para Publicidad e Información, puntos publicitarios en espacios públicos), where each individual muppi will be loaded with the image of the immediate environment behind it. The interventions will be located in the area of the Paseo de la Castellana, Paseo de Recoletos and Paseo del Prado. The interventions will be framed views, with just a slight distinction from reality in a subtle way. They allow users of public space to engage as a participant giving them the possibility to observe the change of reality with the work in time. So concrete the idea is to photograph reality from the perspective of the location where the photograph will be mounted. I am very curious what reality will offer the poster once it is there, such as light conditions, spatial dimension and color input. Following will be the making of this project.

Does anyone knows what these Muppi devices are called in English?

Madrid Abierto will coincide with ARCO, the Annual International Art Fair in Madrid

Quote E-flux:

"ARCO'06 – The International Contemporary Art Fair

Vernissage

H.M. King Juan Carlos I, Honorary President of ARCO, and H.M.
Queen Sofía, will be with us inaugurating a new and very special edition of ARCO: our 25th Anniversary.

During these two-and-a-half decades, they have shared our enthusiasm, long-term efforts, and hard work.
As well as other friends, whose collaboration we truly treasure and who will be present to celebrate such a special occasion.

ARCO's huge popularity with the professional and general public can only be compared its wide view that gains in sophistication with each edition. This year we have managed to bring together almost 300 of the worlds leading galleries from 35 different countries.
